Tue 29 Sep	10.30am - 12noon Unley Town Hall	Imagining the Past: Creating Lost Worlds with Professor Flint Have you ever wondered how scientists know what dinosaurs and other prehistoric creatures really looked like? You'll discover how to piece together clues from fossils to reconstruct the prehistoric past, then create your own prehistoric masterpiece. Participants are encouraged to enter the Mary Anning Art Prize, a creative competition for young South Australians inspired by our state's amazing prehistoric past. Made possible thanks to Inspiring SA and Dinosaur University. Bring your Children's University Passport and receive a stamp for participating. Bookings essential.	6-9	$5
Thu 1 Oct	10.30am - 12noon Goodwood Library	Grandmother Fish Storytime Families are invited to meet Grandmother Fish, an interactive story by Jonathan Tweet, exploring our shared origins and the evolutionary traits we picked up along the way—like wiggling, biting, grasping, cuddling, and talking. Our ancestral story will be brought to life by one of Adelaide's most cherished grandmothers Nani ma Maryam Sadiq (multilingual interpreter) in English, Hindi and Swahili. Children can explore the steps of evolution from fish to human through interactive discovery. Experts Dr Alice Clement (Flinders University) - ancient fish and tetrapod evolution; Dr Qamariya Nasrullah (King's College London) - mammal development and evolution, and Dr. Jenna Crowe-Riddell (Adelaide University) will guide families through the sensory evolution of snakes and lizards. Each station features books, toys, sensory objects, museum specimens, and crafts that showcase nature's weird and wonderful biodiversity. Bookings essential.	3-6	$5
	2 - 4pm Digital Lab Unley Library	Fantasy Miniatures Session 1 (Design and 3D Print) Join us for two sessions that will give you the chance to custom design and 3D print your own miniature or statuette to use in tabletop games or just for fun. In the first session you will customize your own character with features, clothing and gear. Your character will be 3D printed, and then session 2 you will paint your miniature. Bookings essential.	12-18	$10 for both sessions
